

Are you mystified by the College Financial Aid process?

Not sure where to start?

Not sure what aid is available?

With college costs increasing at an average rate of 6% to 10% each year, many families find it difficult, if not impossible to afford to send their children through 4 years of college.

We can Help!

College Financial Aid Assistance Workshop

Effective financial aid planning requires knowledge of all the elements of the entire financial aid process. This workshop provides you with the opportunity to learn the terminology – FAFSA, TAP, the difference between grants and scholarships, what work study is, and all loans – Stafford, Perkins, subsidized, unsubsidized, student, Parent Plus, and private. Find out about the new American Education Tax Credit, the Lifetime Learning Credit, and the tuition deduction.

Free with workshop attendance –

“The Ten Most Common Financial Aid Mistakes”

and

“The Financial Aid Flow Chart”

(timeline that lets you know what you should be doing when)

Do not make the mistake of thinking you will not qualify for financial aid and that you cannot affect the amount of financial aid that you will receive!
